

Constitution of the Republic of Germark

Ratified on 9 September 2025

Preamble

We, the founding citizens of the Republic of Germark, in pursuit of peace, creativity, and sovereign expression, hereby establish this Constitution as the supreme law of our micronation. Rooted in mutual respect, shared leadership, and symbolic statehood, Germark shall serve as a platform for civic imagination, cultural exchange, and democratic values.

Chapter I – The Republic

Article 1 – Sovereignty

Germark is a sovereign, independent micronation founded by Mouhammad and Björn in the year 2025. It exists as a symbolic state within a German school in Denmark.

Article 2 – Hybrid Territory

Germark is a hybrid nation. Its physical location alternates daily between the designated sovereign space of Mouhammad and that of Björn. This rotation symbolizes shared leadership and the mobility of Germark's spirit.

Article 3 – National Identity

The Republic of Germark shall maintain its own flag, emblem, motto, and ceremonial passport. Its motto shall be: "Small in size, mighty in spirit."

Article 4 – Language

The official languages of Germark are English and German. Citizens may use either language in official documents and communication.

Chapter II – Citizenship

Article 5 – Citizenship Rights

Citizens of Germark are entitled to equal protection under this Constitution, freedom of expression, participation in governance, and symbolic diplomatic representation.

Article 6 – Admission of Citizens

Citizenship may be granted to individuals who recognize Germark's sovereignty and values. Admission requires unanimous approval by the dual presidency.

Article 7 – Revocation

Citizenship may be revoked only in cases of symbolic treason, disrespect of Germark's territory, or violation of its founding principles. Revocation requires a formal hearing and unanimous decision.

Chapter III – Government Structure

Article 8 – Executive Authority

Germark is governed by a dual presidency consisting of Mouhammad and Björn. Both presidents hold equal authority and share all executive responsibilities.

Article 9 – Decision-Making

Decisions shall be made by majority vote. In the event of a tie, resolution shall be determined by a neutral method agreed upon in advance (e.g., coin toss, dice roll, or third-party arbitration).

Article 10 – Duties of the Presidency

The presidents shall:

- Uphold and protect the Constitution
- Represent Germark in symbolic diplomatic matters
- Maintain the ceremonial passport system
- Oversee the rotation of territorial sovereignty

Article 11 – Succession

In the event that one president resigns or is unable to fulfill duties, the remaining president may appoint a successor with unanimous citizen approval.

Chapter IV – Law and Justice

Article 12 – Rule of Law

All citizens are subject to the laws of Germark. No one is above the Constitution.

Article 13 – Legal Proceedings

Disputes shall be resolved through peaceful dialogue, mediation, or symbolic court proceedings presided over by both presidents or a designated citizen judge.

Article 14 – Rights of the Accused

All citizens accused of wrongdoing have the right to a fair hearing, the right to speak in their defense, and the right to appeal.

Chapter V – Symbols and Ceremonies

Article 15 – National Symbols

Germark shall maintain:

- A national flag
- A coat of arms or emblem
- A ceremonial passport
- A national motto

Article 16 – Ceremonial Acts

The Republic may conduct symbolic ceremonies including:

- Citizenship grants
- Diplomatic recognitions
- Daily sovereignty handovers between Mouhammad and Björn

Article 17 – National Archives

All official documents, amendments, and ceremonial records shall be preserved in Germark's symbolic national archive.

Chapter VI – Amendments

Article 18 – Proposal of Amendments

Any citizen may propose an amendment to this Constitution. Proposals must be submitted in writing and reviewed by the dual presidency.

Article 19 – Ratification

Amendments require unanimous approval by all citizens and must be documented in the national archive.

Article 20 – Supremacy Clause

This Constitution shall be the highest law of Germark. Any symbolic law or decree in conflict with it shall be considered null and void.

Chapter VII – Final Provisions

Article 21 – Founding Date

This Constitution was ratified on 9 September 2025 and shall remain in effect until formally amended or replaced.

Article 22 – Interpretation

In cases of ambiguity, the dual presidency shall interpret this Constitution in accordance with its spirit and founding principles.

Article 23 – Dissolution

Germark may only be dissolved by unanimous decision of all citizens, followed by a ceremonial closing act and archival preservation of its legacy.
